UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

NELSON L. BRUCE,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

REV FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, et al.,

Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:24-cv-01157-CDS-NJK

ORDER

On October 22, 2024, the Court issued an order indicating that Plaintiff had not paid the $52 filing fee for miscellaneous actions. Docket No. 10. The docket now reflects that Plaintiff had in fact paid that filing fee, but it was credited to a new miscellaneous action that was opened in error. See, e.g., Docket No. 12. The Clerk's Office has closed the other action and transferred the pertinent filings to this action. See Case No. 2:24-cv-02012-APG-MDC, Docket No. 3 (D. Nev. Oct. 31, 2024). In short, the issue of the filing fee is resolved. Because the Court's prior order (Docket No. 10) was issued in error, it is hereby VACATED.

Now that the above clerical error has been addressed, the Court turns to Plaintiff's amended petition to compel discovery, Docket No. 11, along with a proposed summons, Docket No. 13. Given that the amended petition does not include a certificate of service, cf. Local Rule 5-1, it appears that service has not yet been accomplished. Accordingly, the Clerk's Office is INSTRUCTED to issue the proposed summons. Plaintiff must promptly effectuate service on non-party Telus International and must file a certificate of service.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
